

Looking For

Summer Missionaries

Are you fun loving, out-going, energetic and missions minded?
Do you want to help spread the good news of Jesus Christ and have a great time doing it?

If this sounds like you (or someone you know) we are looking for SIX young people to spend the summer doing missions right here in our area.

The Bell Baptist Association (BBA) will provide a $1,400 scholarship for each summer missionary (SMs). SMs will serve a 8.5 week period. On field expenses such as lodging (for any SM who does not live locally), some meals and ministry related costs will be provided by the places served or BBA . SMs are responsible for transportation to and from the field (you will go in pairs, so only one of team will need their own wheels). SMs will be performing various duties for the churches requesting their assistance, but the following are some of the duties performed by previous SMs: Assist with VBS, Music or Sports Camps, planning and preparing for summer activities, assisting with Backyard Bible Clubs, participating in missions trips, park outreach, apartment ministry, Super Saturday events and camping retreats.

Qualifications: Show evidence of growing as a disciple, be 17 by May 1st, 2019, be active in or affiliated with a Bell Baptist Association Church, participate in the application/interview process. (Applications taken thru February 27th.)
